

Publication	Hindustan Times
Language/Frequency	English/Daily
Page No	II (Gurgaon Times)
Date	28 th August 2017

Int'l delegations to discuss changing trends in education

Leena Dhankhar

■ leena.dhankhar@hindustantimes.com

GURGAON: Educationists and government officials from United States, China, Southeast Asia, Latin America, Europe, Middle East and India will come together in the city on Tuesday to deliberate on crucial issues affecting the education sector at a Pre-Conference Presidential Forum. The event will be hosted at a private school in Gurgaon.

The educationists will discuss changing careers in the 21st century, increased interest in the liberal style arts education and cross-border educational partnerships. Dr. Adam Weinberg, a renowned educationist, and president, Denison University, will lead the US delegation at the Presidential Forum, a spokesperson for the event said.

The forum, to be hosted at Suncity School, Sector 54, is a part of a two-day conference by IC3 (International Career Counselling Conference) to be held at a five-star hotel in New Delhi on Wednesday and Thursday. It is aimed at enabling school authorities and managements contribute to the process of setting up infrastructure and framing policies to guide students to choose and succeed in careers that best fit their ambitions and interests.