Anushka Panda, a class XI student of Suncity School, Gurgaon received a special mention in the Prime Minister Narendra Modi's address to the nation in

'Mann Ki Baat' programme. She is an All India topper in the specially abled category

scoring Suncity School, Gurgaon

97.8% marks in class X board examinations this year. Anushka is suffering from spinal muscular atrophy. Speaking on the occasion, Rupa Chakravarty, school principal, shared her happiness saying, "She is a pride of our school and an inspiration for all of us. The focus she possesses is rare to find. What she has achieved is an example to other students. She has not only excelled in education but also in singing, gaming, and participates in all co-curricular activities. Her tenacity and power of resilience is something we all should learn from."
