Suncity World School, Gurgaon hosted the Model United Nations Conference. Over 200 students from various schools participated in the third edition of the India International Model United Nations, Gurgaon Chapter. The event saw the mock simulations of seven United Nations' committees wherein students discussed and deliberated upon burning agendas like the relevance of ROP (UNSC); the Social Political and Economic rights of sex workers (UNHRC); the significance of Uniform Civil Code (Niti Ayog), the position of Dalits (Lok Sabha) and the like. The chief guest on the occasion was former diplomat Amitava Tripathi. The ceremony opened with an enthralling dance performance. "At Suncity, we try to ensure that students get an exposure to both academics and extra-curricular activities. MUN helps students to develop analytical skills besides honing oratory skills," said Rupa
